EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY FOR ALL BALLE
PRODUCTIONS AND EVENTS
MONDAY, MARCH 16, 2020

Ballet Spartanburg respects the many uncertainties and uncharted times of COVID-19. Ballet Spartanburg will adhere to the advice and guidelines of the CDC for social gatherings of 50 or more as of March 15, 2020 and social distancing for the next 8 weeks. We recognize the disappointment of our sponsors, patrons, ticket holders and dancers as we postpone the March 20, 2020 production of The Write Moves, the April 17-18, 2020 production of A Midsummer Night's Dream and our Sunday, April 19th, 2020 Ballet and Bond on Wall Street event until next season. These decisions are made for the collective good of our community and its citizens. Ballet Spartanburg holds the health of our community paramount as the world, nation, state and community work together for many months ahead. We ask that our ticket holders hold on to all tickets as we work to reschedule for next season. Thank you for your support, kindness and understanding as we, as a community, work together to keep one another healthy.

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY

CENTER FOR DANCE EDUCATION IS CLOSED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

Ballet Spartanburg respects the many uncertainties and uncharted times of COVID-19. Ballet Spartanburg will adhere to the advice and guidelines of the CDC for social gatherings of 50 or more, Governor McMaster's advisement of no more than 100, the adherence of social distancing as well as the closings of all public schools in the state of South Carolina. We recognize the disappointment of our students, teachers and parents who enjoy weekly dance classes. Classes are in place for all to attend make-up classes when students return. These decisions are made for the collective good of our community and its citizens. Ballet Spartanburg holds the health of our community paramount as the world, nation, state and community work together for many months ahead. Please check all emails for communication. Thank you for your support, kindness and understanding as we, as a community, work together to keep one another healthy.

Please see emails we have sent out for virtual classes and for fun activities for your student to stay active.
